

GRIID students enjoyed painting and dance activities

A total of 160 students participated in the diya painting and card-making activities organized by the Himalayan Foundation for GRIID school students. It was followed by playing the game of musical chairs, songs and dancing. Refreshments were given to the participants and winners were given prizes. Ms Manisha Sharma, Ms Parineeta Jindal and Ms Raman co-ordinated for this activity.

Students above doing diya painting activity and playing musical chairs

(Clockwise from top left) Ram, Abhay, Diksha and Anup were given prizes