GRIID students participated in International Day of Yoga at Rock Garden

Seventy-five persons participated in International Day of Yoga on 21st June, 2023. It included students of GRIID, students of HRD, and staff of GRIID. Participants participated in rehearsals on 19th June, 2023 and final day of yoga on 21st June, 2023 at Rock Garden, Chandigarh. The program was organised by Chandigarh Administration.

Ms Manisha Sharma and Ms Parineeta Jindal, yoga therapists, were the nodal officers of the event from GRIID.

The day-wise photos are depicted as follows:

- 1. 19th June, 2023 Rehearsal Day
- 2. 21st June, 2023 International Day of Yoga

19th June, 2023

Rehearsals begin for 'unforgettable' UT Yoga Day event at Rock Garden str EXPR

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE CHANDIGARH, JUNE 19

IN PREPARATION for the ninth International Day of Yoga, 2023 the Directorate of AYUSH organ ised a rehearsal for the yoga pro-tocol at the Rock Garden. A di-verse array of yoga associations verse array of yoga associations and non-governmental organi-sations participated in the re-hearsal, showcasing their com-mitment to the promotion of yoga and well-being. The UT Administration is go-ing to celebrate the 9th International Day of Yoga (IDY) on June 21, 2023. The event will take place at the picturesque Rock

June 21, 2023. The event will take place at the picturesque Rock Garden, Phase-III, Chandigarh. A total of 1,000 participants will perform at the Rock Garden whereas several participants would do yoga at 100 other lo-cations in Chandigarh. This year's Yoga Day will be commemorated under the theme of 'Yoga for Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam,' emphasising the global unity and harmony that yoga promotes.

During a rehearsal for the Yoga Day, at Rock Garden, Chandigarh, Monday. Express

The 9th International Day of Yoga serves as a significant platform to celebrate the ancient practice of yoga and its profound impact on physical, mental, and spiritual well-being. By bringing together yoga enthusiasts, profes-sionals and organisations, the Chandigarh Administration aims to foster a sense of unity and solidarity in the pursuit of holistic wellne

The UT-level event at Rock Garden on 21st June promises to be an unforgettable experience, combining the serene ambiance of this iconic location with the t transformative power of yoga Banwarilal Purohit, Governor of Punjab-cum-Administrator, UT Chandigarh, will the chief guest while Gajendra Singh Shekhawat, Union Jal Shakti Minister, will be the guest of honour on the occa-sion," said a statement issued by sion the Chandigarh Administration

Us

GRIID participants in photo

GRIID participants in photo

HT Correspondent chandigarh@hindustantimes.co

ms

for nda

tee

ito

HM

nit-

CHANDIGARH : In the run-up to the 9th International Yoga Day (IDY) on June 21, the directorate of AYUSH organised a rehearsal of the yoga protocol at the Rock Garden on Monday.

A diverse array of yoga associations and non-governmental organisations participated in the rehearsal, showcasing their commitment to the promotion of yoga and well-being.

d of yoga and well-being. The event will take place at Rock Garden, Phase-III. This year's IDY will be commemorated under the theme 'Yoga for the Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam," emphasising the global unity and harmony that yoga promotes. The 9th IDY serves as a significant platform to celebrate the ancient practice of yoga and its profound impact on physical, mental, and spiritual well-being. By bringing together yoga organisations, the UT administration aims to foster a sense of unity and solidarity in the pursuit of holistic wellness. Punjab governor and UT administrator Banwarilal Purohit will be the chief guest while Union jal shakti minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat will attend the event as guest of honour.

A rehearsal underway at Rock Garden, Chandigarh, on Monday.

A total of 1,000 participants would perform at Rock Garden whereas a huge number of participants would do yoga at about 100 other locations in the city.

HT PHOTO

GRIID participants in photo

GRIID participants in photo

21st June, 2023

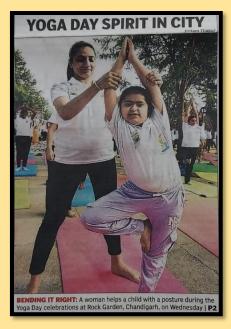

Ms Manisha and Ms Parineeta, yoga therapists, receiving participation certificate in IDY on behalf of GRIID

Dr Jasbinder Kaur Director GRIID cum Director-Principal GMCH-32 with GRIID participants on 21st June, 2023.

Officers of Chandigarh Administration, Department of Ayush and organisers with GRIID participants on 21st June, 2023.

Ms Manisha with IDY participant