Other Activities and Units

(a) Tutorial Groups:

To establish rapport between the teacher and the taught, all the students are divided into tutorial groups. Each group is placed under the guidance of a tutor who keeps records of the activities and progress of the students of the group during their stay in the college. Character certificates are issued on the basis of these records. School Pre-Internship and Internship Programs are organized in school's tutorial group wise.

(b) National Service Scheme

The College has one unit of NSS and participation in NSS activities is compulsory for all the students of B.Ed., M.Ed. and Diploma (Special Education)

The N.S.S. Unit of the college provides opportunities to the college students to participate in projects of community service in the adjoining localities. The basic aim of the N.S.S. is to make new links between the students of the college and the people living in the neighborhood. The students are encouraged not only to join the community in execution of development projects but also to share their knowledge and cultural activities with the members of the community.

(c) Guidance and Counseling Unit

The unit provides counseling services to the College students. It arranges sessions in guidance and counseling for prospective teachers and educational and career conferences for the benefit of the students. The College also provides 24 hours stress management helpline. (TeleManas.....)

(d) Co-curricular Activities

To develop the creative talent among students, a number of co-curricular activities are organized in the college. It is obligatory for every student to enroll himself/herself as a member of the literary and cultural society.

(e) Value Education

Another important feature of the College is Value Education Period whereby every tutorial group has to present it on every Friday, thus inculcating a habit of working in a group and also discipline oneself.

Value Education is an important feature of the college life and students are required to contribute speeches, devotional songs etc. in their assemblies or any other event having moral, spiritual and education value. It is compulsory for all to attend it on all Fridays.

(f) Sports

Sports and Athletics are held regularly and are compulsory for all the students of this college to participate. It is compulsory for every student to participate in the Annual Athletic Meet of the College and University.

(g) Magazine:

Students are welcome to contribute articles to the college magazine, which is an annual publication of the college.

(h) Smart class rooms

All the classrooms of the college are equipped with the Interactive Boards, L.C.D. projectors and computers for multimedia presentations.

(i) Laboratories

The college provides the facilities of well-equipped and well-maintained laboratories to the students facilitating them to enhance their teaching skills through experiments, demonstrations and presentations. The college has Computer, Language, Guidance and Counseling, Psychology, Special Education laboratories, which are fully equipped.

(j) Placement Cell

The College placement cell invites online enrolment from all the Teacher Graduates and Post Graduates of the college who are interested in seeking employment in Education and special Education. It caters primarily to the employment needs of the schools, clinics, Colleges of Education and other educational institutions with assured prompt quality service.

The prospective employers are welcome to mail their requirements to the cell.
